As we enter the REAL home stretch...

1. Many thanks to Brendan Holleran for organizing a fun gathering at the Paragon Boardwalk on Wednesday afternoon. I think most attendees agreed it was a great spot that should be visited again soon!
2. Don't forget the PTO-sponsored luncheon on Monday at 11:30 AM. Skip breakfast and bring a hearty appetite. This year, for the first time, the event will be catered by Wahlburgers.
3. Here's more proof that HHS faculty members practice what they teach: The "Morsels" exhibit opening on June 21st at Calvernia Gallery & Studio in Millville, NJ, will feature a painting (see "Halloween Crab" attached below) by Mike Doherty.
4. Harbor Media posted the 2019 HHS graduation on YouTube this week. If you weren't there to experience it in person, you might want to check out the speeches by Jess Carr, Anna Calame, James Winikoff and Billy Johnston. I don't think I've ever seen a stronger collection of student speeches at a high school graduation. Even if you were there, you might want to watch them again!
5. Two more days. We're going to make it.

Have a great weekend, and don't sweat the last REAL Sunday night of the year...
