Code of Conduct
Amendments Related to Remote Learning for the 2020-2021 School Year

The following provisions are in effect for all remote learning sessions:

1. Students will not use cellphones during synchronous sessions.
2. At the discretion of the teacher, all student cameras will be enabled.
3. Students will not utilize distracting backgrounds. Blank backgrounds or the environment in which the student is engaged in Remote Learning are acceptable.
4. First and last names will be used by students when labeling their “window.”
5. Comments and responses will be provided verbally, unless otherwise requested by the teacher.
6. Students should be engaged and attentive to synchronous sessions at all times, just as when school is in normal operation.
7. Students should be attentive and seated upright as they would be during class held during normal operation.
8. Student attendance will be required at all sessions, and attendance will be taken with advance notice being provided for tardiness and absences to the extent possible.
9. Students seeking adjustment or accommodation due to circumstances created by the pandemic will be encouraged to engage in a dialog with the teacher(s) as to how to address their concerns, consistent with learning goals.
10. Synchronous Learning Sessions are not intended to replace parental/family/guardian supervision.
11. All work product will be graded as during normal school operations, except as altered by the establishment of an SEL Plan, IEP, 504, or similar arrangement.
12. Recording of live Synchronous Learning Sessions, including photos or screenshots, will be strictly prohibited.
13. All Acceptable Use Policy and Student Handbook rules continue to be in effect during Remote Learning.
14. While we expect that some students will require supervision in order to participate in remote learning, supervising parents/caregivers shall not disrupt or interfere with the instruction in any manner. Parents/caregivers must keep all information regarding students in the classroom confidential.
