

The Red Bandanna (Young Readers Adaptation) by Tom Rinaldi

Directions: Please complete the prompts for Book, Head, Heart, and Questions in one or two sentences for each. You may choose to print out the template and hand write your responses, or type your responses. These notes can be turned in to your ELA teacher by Friday, Sept. 10, 2021.

Book

The factual information provided in the text:

The story is about...

The author wants me to know...

The person telling the story is...

The setting of the story is...

Head

Your thoughts that are "awakened" during reading:

I was surprised by...

The author thought I already knew...

This challenged or confirmed my thinking...

Heart

Your emotional responses to the reading:

What I learned about me or others...

How my thinking about 9/11 has changed...

How this will help me be better...

Questions

Things I am still curious about:

I'm wondering...

I'm confused about...

Want to Learn More? Check out these links:

Blog post from the 9/11 Memorial in NYC

Scholastic article about Welles

Boston College web page for Welles and the 5K that is run in his memory

Another related story of more 9/11 heroes: BOATLIFT